

Stay with TAIFEX on the Edge of the Trend

Taiwan Futures Exchange (TAIFEX) provides products across equities, equity indices, interest rates, FX and commodities. Its flagship products—TAIEX Futures and TAIEX Options have been among the most actively traded contracts in the world. In addition to the flagship products, TAIFEX offers international cooperation products, including futures on TOPIX, Nifty 50, Dow Jones Industrial Average®, S&P 500® and Brent Crude Oil Index to provide diversified hedging channels in Taiwan. Furthermore, the after-hour trading session launched in May 2017 has quickly gained traction from investors with trading volume amounted to over 20% of the regular session, enabling investors to manage their risks during US and EU trading hours.
